UCLA GRADUATE DIVISION APPLICATION
DEADLINE: January 9, 2019 (5pm PST)
www.grad.ucla.edu/apply

In addition to basic information about yourself and your academic history, the online Graduate Division Application requires the following components:

- Area of Study – indicate the area of study for which you intend your application to be considered.
Descriptions of areas of study and faculty biographies can be found here: <http://www.art.ucla.edu/graduate/areas.html>
Note: Applicant materials will be reviewed for consideration for the area of study indicated. In addition, if you believe your work and research interests also are suited for an alternate area of study, you have the option to indicate a second area of study. Please note we cannot assure that your application will be reviewed for this alternate area.
- Three references and email addresses (phone and address optional)
Note: Please note that while a list of three references/recommenders is required, letters of recommendation are not. Unsolicited reference letters will NOT be included in the review process.
- Academic History & Transcripts – list previous schools attended, including GPA, dates attended, degree, and major. Upload copies of unofficial transcripts and list any coursework currently in progress.
Note: Please note that you are not required to include transcripts for community college or study abroad coursework, if completed prior to completion of your BA degree.
- Awards and Publications (OPTIONAL)
- Resume/CV
Note: Please also note that you will be prompted to provide information that is usually included on CV's (Awards, Honors, Exhibitions, etc.) in the Supplemental Application (see next page).
- Personal History Statement (OPTIONAL) – this Statement is optional and should not duplicate the Statement of Purpose in the Supplemental Application.
Prompt: Describe how your background, accomplishments, and life experiences led to your decision to pursue the graduate degree for which you are applying. Include any educational, personal, cultural, economic, or social experiences, challenges or opportunities relevant to your academic journey. In addition, please describe any aspects of your personal background, accomplishments, or achievements that will allow the department to evaluate your contributions to the University's diversity mission. Contributions to diversity and equal opportunity can take a variety of forms, such as efforts to advance equitable access to education, public service, that addresses the need of a diverse population, or research that explores inequalities. (Text box 8000 character max.)
- Professional Experience (OPTIONAL)
- Fellowship Application –Masters (OPTIONAL) – the fellowship application is optional, and pertains to campus-wide merit-based University awards.
Award descriptions and eligibility information can be found within the online application, and online here: <https://grad.ucla.edu/funding/financial-aid/funding-for-entering-students/fellowships-grants/>
For applicants to the Graduate Opportunity Fellowship Program: You will need to also upload a diversity statement in the application. More information here: <https://grad.ucla.edu/funding/financial-aid/funding-for-entering-students/graduate-opportunity-fellowship-program-gofp/>
- Test Scores – The Department of Art does not require GRE scores.
Note: Applicants whose first language is not English must certify English Proficiency. More information can be found here: <https://grad.ucla.edu/admissions/english-requirements/>
- Supporting Documents (OPTIONAL) – The Department of Art does not require any supporting documents.

SUPPLEMENTAL APPLICATION
DEADLINE: January 11, 2019 (5pm PST)
<https://supplemental.arts.ucla.edu/grad/>

Refer to the portfolio guidelines posted at the Department of Art Website for further instructions. Your application is NOT complete until you submit the Graduate Division application AND this supplemental application.

- Awards/Distinctions/Exhibitions/Residencies/Publications/Organizations
Prompt: Please list relevant awards, distinctions, exhibitions, residencies, publications, and professional organizations in which you hold membership.
- Statement of Purpose (required)
Prompt: Please state your purpose in applying for graduate study. Describe your scholarly and research area(s) of interest, experiences that contributed to your preparation in the field, and your plans for your future occupation or profession. Briefly describe experiences that have prepared you for advanced study or research, and provide any additional information that may aid the selection committee in evaluating your preparation and aptitude for graduate study at UCLA. This statement should be no longer than 6000 characters (approximately 1000 words). It is recommended that you write your statement in a separate word processing program, then copy and paste it into the space provided.
- Artist Statement (required)
Prompt: Please use this section to submit a short statement about your artwork. The statement should be no longer than 3000 characters (approximately 500 words). It is recommended that you write your statement in a separate word processing program, then copy and paste it into the space provided.
- Portfolio Submission (required) – All applicants must submit a portfolio of work consisting of a maximum of 20 still images.

Applicants whose work is time-based should submit stills and/or performance documentation as jpegs, in addition to submitting time-based media files (see below).

Please refer to the portfolio guidelines posted at the Department of Art Website for detailed instructions.

FORMAT GUIDELINES:

- STILL IMAGES (.jpeg) - Maximum file size: 2000 X 2000 pixels / 5MB
Note: Applicants will be asked to provide the title, medium, dimensions, and date for each artwork. Applicants submitting images documenting installation, performance, and project-based work should also include brief descriptions (1000 characters maximum). No more than 20 images may be submitted; applicants will not be able to submit application with fewer than 15.
 - TIME-BASED MEDIA - To best represent your practice, upload up to 4 files with running time of three minutes or less. The combined total running time of the four files may not exceed 12 minutes.
Note: Applicants submitting time-based media files should also include the title, date, duration, and brief descriptions (1000 characters maximum).
- OPTIONAL: In addition to uploaded files, applicants may submit two identical DVDs each with full-length versions of the excerpts uploaded online. Please understand that in most cases, no more than 12 minutes of time-based media will be reviewed via the online application. DVD submissions, therefore, might – or might not- be considered in the review process.
